Liquor Laws and Policies

All persons consuming alcoholic beverages in any area of the lodge must be 21 years of age or over. The lodge reserves the right to terminate liquor service at a function if minors attending intend to consume alcoholic beverages. The Illinois State Liquor Commission regulates the sales and service of alcoholic beverages. Grand Bear Lodge, as a licensee, is responsible for the administration of these regulations. Therefore, it is our policy that liquor cannot be brought into the lodge from outside sources.
